Et tu, Brute James K. Jones!

If Taft and Bacon succeed in killing the insurrection microbe in Cuba, they might be sent over to Santo Domingo on a similar mission.

It doesn't seem that Cuba was ready for her independence when she got it

Col. Bryan keeps on paying compliments to President Roosevelt for stealing the planks of the Democratic platform.

The Republican party in North Carolina may smooth up its pretenses but it can't get rid of its odor in the face of an election.

In Warsaw the other day a Russian official had his head blown off by a bomb thrown by a blonde girl. She is not the only blonde girl that has caused a man to lose his head.

Some newspapers are impatient because Secretaries Taft and Bacon haven't been able to restore peace in Cuba yet. Be patient. For goodness' sake give them time to find out why the insurgents insurged.

The reform party in Pennsylvania has a big row in the camp. Guess there are more reformers than there are offices that must necessarily be filled by reformers.

Does the Platt amendment leave it to the President or to Congress to decide when the time is ripe for intervention in Cuba?

Says the Richmond Times-Dispatch: "The fact that the city every now and then finds herself 'hard up' shows that there is something wrong with her financial system." Individually speaking, we should say there is.

President Roosevelt in his letter to the Cubans reminded them that it was under his administration that the American army was withdrawn and it was he who signed the treaty giving Cuba her independence. You can look on this as a bit of boasting or the unintentional acknowledgment of a mistake, just as you like.

No it is not true that the United States are to place Gen. Weyler in command of our army of intervention. What do we want with Weyler when we have a Gen. Funston who was "discredited" for breach of the rules of civilized warfare in the Philippines? This country always stands for home products against foreign importations.

COURT IS IN SESSION

One-Week Term for Trial of Criminal Causes Convened Yesterday Morning.

SHOCKLEY CASE THURSDAY

Ernest Bullock Too Weak From Disease to be Arraigned for Burglary —Many Cases Disposed of Yesterday—Organization.

New Hanover Superior Court convened yesterday morning at the usual hour, Judge E. B. Jones, of Winston, presiding, and Solicitor Rodolph Duffy present, representing the State. After organization for the term, Judge Jones delivered a very wholesome charge to the grand jury, touching upon the various crimes on the statute books and closing with a reference to lynching, which he declared was not sectional and was peculiar to the North as well as the South, citing the recent case in Springfield, Ohio, as an instance of the truth of the latter statement Mob law was condemned and those who engaged in it were branded as murderers in that such work was necessarily premeditated. One of the grand jurors inquired as to the law governing the sale or gift of cigarettes to minors and this was explained by Judge Jones in such a manner that cases of violations may be brought before the court.

Immediately the charge to the grand jury was completed, Judge Jones entered upon the docket of cases for trial and a large number of them were disposed of during the day. On account of a number of the attorneys engaged being at Southport attending Brunswick Superior Court, the case of M. W. Shockley was moved forward a day and set for trial on Thursday morning of this week instead of Wednesday as previously named. There are no new developments in the case except that W. P. Gafford, Esq., has been associated with counsel for the defence. William J. Bellamy, Esq., will assist the solicitor in the prosecution.

During the day Caesar Bullock, charged with implication with Ed. Readis in the burglary of the home of Mr. C. D. Gore, was brought out for arraignment, but he was too weak from the ravages of consumption to go through the ordeal and Judge Jones asked the solicitor to look into the case and see it was worth while to proceed any further; that it was clear that the prisoner would soon have to answer to a higher court and it would be inhuman to go further. Readis, it will be remembered, died of consumption only a few weeks ago. The evidence against Bullock is that he was outside the house, presumably watching for Readis, who entered. Bullock has been released from jail but it is expected to be only a question of a few days before he will go the way of his partner in the crime. He was too weak yesterday to stand up for the

FIVE ARE UNDER TREATMENT

Patients Recommended by Mayor and Chief of Police Being Treated at The Orton—Originator of the Remedy.

Dr. J. J. McKanna, proprietor of the famous Three-Day Liquor Cure Company, which has been quite extensively advertised in this State and South Carolina, arrived in the city last night from his sanitarium in Reidsville, N. C., and is stopping at The Orton. Dr. McKenna is accompanied by his advertising manager Mr. J. T. Oliver, of Reidsville, and they are here for the purpose of making a practical demonstration of his celebrated remedy for the liquor habit as previously announced. Dr. McKanna a few days ago asked Mayor Waddell and Chief of Police Williams to furnish them with three or four patients for the purpose of the demonstration, no matter how confirmed the habit, and last night upon his arrival, Dr. McKanna, was met by the Mayor and a class of five, who volunteered for the free treatment. The names are not given at Dr. McKanna's request, but the treatment begun last night and will continue for the period advertised. Dr. McKanna guarantees a cure and asks not one cent for his services. He advertises the cure and desires living testimony of his ability to carry out every promise.

Dr. McKana was also met by pastors of a number of Wilmington churches who brought to his attention cases that they would like to have treated and the most deserving of all to constitute a class of five was taken in charge and will receive the treatment through to-morrow. Last night they were given the preliminaries to the cure and were told to go to their homes. They will report at the hotel at 7 o'clock this morning again and remain in the rooms provided by Dr. McKanna until this evening at 6 o'clock when they will be again permitted to go home. To-morrow the final day's treatment will be given and the doctor will then ask the verdict of the patients themselves as to the cure. Dr. McKanna has been asked to take a private class for treatment and may do so, though his present visit is solely for demonstration purposes. He maintains at Reidsville a high-class sanitarium and corps of trained attendants and would prefer patients would go there, but may decide to treat a limited number here. The old Rockingham Hotel, a fine property at Reidsville, was recently purchased by Dr. McKana for the sanitarium and it is already well filled with those desiring to break themselves of the habit contracted.

Dr. McKanna is an interesting talker and a reporter enjoyed a brief conversation with him last night. He is the owner of a number of sanitariums in the West and had one in 'Frisco prior to the late earthquake. His cure is new only to the east, as he has been practicing 17 years beyond the Mississippi with a success that is unquestioned from the large number of very striking testimonials he carries. His coming to North Carolina was for the benefit of Mrs. McKanna's health who is quite as enthusiastic over the cure as is the doctor himself. Demonstrations have been made in all the leading cities of North and South Carolina and the press of those cities have published columns of striking incidents of the cure. Dr. McKanna would be pleased to talk with anyone interested at The Orton to-day.

HAS COMPLETED HIS SENTENCE.

John Toler Starts Out Life Anew With New Environments.

John F. Toler, the well known young man of this city, who was recently sentenced to a term on the roads from Justice Purlong's court, on Thursday completed his term and with a firm resolution to begin life anew boarded the train at Castle Haynes for New York. He said before he left and gave every evidence of sincerity in the statement that he proposed making a man of himself and there are those who believe that he has the grit to do it. He said that he had no desire to come back to Wilmington but desired to begin life anew with an entirely new environment, hence his leaving for New York. His determination in this respect will win for the young man the admiration of all.

DISABLED VESSELS

Harbor at Southport Is Full of Them From Storm of Last Week.

A BARQUE IS LIBELLED

Norwegian Craft With Big Cargo of Lumber For Brazil—Raising the Atlantic—Arrivals and Departures From the Port.

There were no further reports of disaster to shipping at Southport yesterday but the harbor there is full of derelicts in mute testimony to the terrible fury of he storm off this coast last week. Nearly four hundred people went down the river Sunday on the steamer Wilmington to see the wrecks and the other signs of the storm below. The excursionists were amazed and quite generally interested in the visible effects of the gale and talked interestingly of what they saw and heard. The marine men are busy in adjusting losses and salvage claims and communicating with owners North in regard to the disposition of derelicts. As yet no contract has been awarded for raising the Atlantic which was cut in two by the Clyde Liner last Thursday morning and it is probable that a Wilmington concern may get the job as there is ample machinery here for lifting the steamer and docking her.

The Norwegian barque previously reported ashore on Frying Pan Shoals and rescued by the fishing steamer Wharton, Capt. W. J. Marrin, proved to be the Launberga, 1,215 tons, Capt. Johnson, but from Pensacola, Fla., since August 24th, with cargo of nearly a million feet of lumber for Rio Janeiro, Brazil. She was towed into Southport and is one of the prettiest models of a sailing craft ever seen at the local port. She went on the shoals Saturday about 10 A. M., and remained there in a very dangerous position for about five hours during which it became necessary to cut away the masts and rigging. She suffered also a disarrangement of her steering gear and sprang a leak. She had about seven feet of water in her hold when she was brought into Southport and was pumped out by the Wharton. The vessel and cargo is very valuable and already the Wharton, through Attorneys Russell & Goodman, of the Fisheries Company, have libelled the vessel to enforce payment of the claim. Deputy Marshal C. O. Knox will go down to Southport this morning to take possession of the craft.

Representatives of the owners of several of the derelict ships at Southport are already here and are arranging for the disposition of the property. The schooners R. D. Bibber and Job H. Jackson were completely abandoned at sea and the claims in those instances will be the value of the vessels. It is doubtful if either can be saved but they will be relieved of their cargo and other values so far as it is possible. Mr. Baird, representing the underwriters who carried the insurance on the steamer Atlantic is expected here this morning.

The big British steamer Westlands, which arrived Saturday night from Huelva, with cargo of pyrites was towed up to an anchorage nearly opposite Kidder's mill Sunday morning where she swung ashore astern. In spite of the efforts of the tugs Navassa and Marion to pull her off on both tides yesterday, she is still hard and fast in the mud on the west side of the river and was being lightered last night in order that the tugs might pull on her to better advantage on high water this morning. The vessel is consigned to Heide & Co., and will discharge at the Carolina Central warehouses.

The Norfolk tug Lugenbach, Capt. Mills, arrived in at Southport Sunday after seeking off the coast since the storm with the result that she towed four distressed schooners into her home port. She will probably proceed again to-day. The buoy tender Wistaria came back into Southport Sunday after towing the lightship to her station. The enforced absence of the lightship from her post Saturday is said to be the cause of the barque going ashore there. The barque is the same one that appeared off the coast the day after the storm and was unable to get a pilot to come in, the pilos believing that it was another barque which upon her last trip took a pilot in when she was drawing very little water and then refused to take one out when it was profitable to pilot the ship.

The Baltimore steamer arrived in port last midnight, reporting to Mr. Walter Smallbones at the upper compress. She brings a general cargo of merchandise for Wilmington consignees and will sail to-night or to-morrow for Georgetown, S. C.

Two schooners cleared yesterday with cargoes. The schooner Wm. H. Davidson goes to New York with cargo of lumber consigned by C. D. Maffitt agent, and the Carrie A. Bucknam goes to Gonaives, Hayti, with balance of cargo of lumber from S. & W. H. Northrop.

NEGRO'S FATAL SHOT

Young Colored Drayman Had Intestines Punctured in 21 Places Sunday Night.

IS DEAD AT HOSPITAL

His Assailant Breaks For Liberty and Is Heard of No More—Seems to Be Case of Deliberate Murder.

Early Sunday night, at Tom Brown's restaurant, on Seventh between Nun and Church streets, Charlie Washington, a young colored drayman of the city, was shot in the stomach and mortally wounded by Fred Hill, alias Tom Fields, another negro with whom it is understood that he had a fight the day before. Hill or Fields is said to have laid in wait for Washington and plugged him when the opportunity presented itself. Immediately after the shooting the crowd of negroes about the place scattered in every direction and the man with the pistol has not been seen since. The shooting occurred shortly after 8 o'clock and news of it reached the police station over the 'phone. Two mounted policemen were on the scene in a few minutes but all trace of Fields was lost and diligent effort on the part of the police since has failed of his capture.

The wounded negro was placed in the ambulance and hurried to the hospital where it was ascertained that the intestines were punctured in twenty-one places and little hope was held out.

Sergeant Hardee made a thorough investigation of the shooting and the facts seem to bear out a clear case of premeditated murder.

The wounded negro died last night at 9 o'clock.

THE POLICE COURT YESTERDAY

As Usual the Docket Was Heavy For Monday Noon.

The session of the police court yesterday was rather lengthy as is always the case on Monday mornings. However, none of the cases was of special interest. Thos. Williams and James Howe, the pickaninnies charged with stealing brasses from some boat in the harbor, were found not guilty and discharged, no owner having appeared to identify the property.

Lewis McNeill and Janie McKoy, colored, arested by Officer C. G. Jones for an affray, were each fined $10 and costs. John Holden and Antone Morris, colored bootblacks, arrested by Officer M. P. Newton for throwing glass in the street, near Front and Princess, were each fined $5 and costs. John Betea, Carrie Green and John Moseley, a trio of disorderlies, arrested by Officer C. S. Burnett, near Front and Orange, were araigned in a blanket warrant. Green was let off with the costs. Bethea was found not guilty and Moseley was taxed with $10 and costs. The other cases yesterday were not important.

GREAT SCARCITY OF LABOR.

General Complaint on the Wharf—As to Deportation.

There is very general complaint on the wharf of scarcity of laborers. Stevedores by contract have been strictly "up against it" for some time, but this week the situation has been acute. It has been simply impossible to hire negro labor at any price. Talk of some concerted action to supply the demand is being had among parties interested who complain that agents are here and have been here deporting the labor to South Carolina against the laws of the State. Names of such agents could not be learned from a party interested who talked to a reporter yesterday but the newspaper man was led to believe that prosecutions would follow unless the deportation ceased immediately. It is set up that as high prices will be paid here as anywhere in the country and it is wrong to deprive them of that which legitimately belongs here.

Complaint of Idle Negroes—Fifth District Cases In Supreme Court—Raleigh Street Car Accident—Other Capital Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept 24.—Governor Glenn this afternon issued an address to the people of North Carolina appealing for liberal contributions toward the $10,000 fund for the hero bronze statute to Charles D. McIver on the grounds of the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro. He names the chairman of six committees to solicit contributions as follows for teachers and children of the public schools, J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Raleigh; for the State Normal and Industrial College and its alumni, Miss Gertrude Mendenhall, of Greensboro; for the women of North Carolina, Mrs. Lindsay Patterson, Winston-Salem; for the men of North Carolina, Col. W. H. Osborne, of Greensboro; for the press of North Carolina, Josephus Daniels, of Raleigh.

The Council of State passed a resolution placing at the disposal of the North Carolina Commission for the North Carolina exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition the thirty thousand dollars appropriated by the last Legislature. The Council declared conditions subject to which the appropriation had been made, had been complied with in that the general government appropriated one million dollars toward assuring the success of the Exposition.

Judge Webb grants the mandamus for a prohibition election. The Aldermen appeal.

There is a general complaint here of the great number of idle negroes on the streets and the impossibility of inducing any more than small per cent. of them to accept jobs when offered to them. A plan is being formulated for a systematic movement to bring the loafers into the police court as vagrants.

The argument of appeals from the fifth district including Wilmington and New Hanover county will be taken up in the Supreme Court to-morrow morning, there being fifteen cases on appeal. A case of special interest to towns throughout the State where volunteer fire companies have been maintained on the basis of exemption of members from jury duty and taxes, is that of State vs. Cantwell from Wilmington in which the power of the Legislature to authorize or discontinue such an exemption is involved.

Another case from Wilmington that involves the interests of a large number of citizens of that city is Solomon vs. Sewerage Co. This is a case in which a local company was operating the sewerage system and had long term contracts with citizens as to rates and service. The company sold out to a Northern corporation by whom the rates were increased. Solomon and a large number of other citizens joined in an injunction suit. The trial judge held that the contracts with the old company were merely tentative. In the hearing ex-Congressman Jno. D. Bellamy appears for the sewerage company and Geo. Rountree and Marsden Belamy, Jr., for Solomon and associates.

Wilson vs. the Atlantic Coast Line, also from Wilmington is a suit in which the plaintiff obtained in the trial below $5,000 damages for injuries sustained by being struck by a train at what is known as Nutt street crossing at which there are seventeen tracks.

Other sixth district cases to be argued this week are State vs. Robinson, State vs. Wells, Hollingsworth vs. Skelding, receiver, Smith vs. Moore, Hatcher vs. Faison, Bennett vs. Best, Morisey vs. Hill, Jones vs. Railroad, Spell vs. Railroad, Weeks vs. Spooner, Vecton vs. Dunn.

Early this morning a street car going toward the depot on Martin street smashed a delivery wagon belonging to the Cel-i-ko Co., and badly bruised young Lemuel Yearby, son of A. H. Yearby, of the State Department of Insurance, who was driving it to the Cel-i-ko Company's place of business for the sake of saving a long walk to school.

THE SOUTH AND ITS PROSPERITY

In recent years numerous Southerners have been among the tourists in Europe and the fact has attracted the attention of the English press. The Washington Post makes this interesting reference to an edotorial in one of the London papers:

"The London Daily Mail recently contained comment upon a change going on in American affairs whose surface indication is of vast and pleasing significance at home, but which doubtless is not understood by the foreigners who have made note of it. In speaking of the great horde of travelers from the United States in England, the Mail says: 'A feature of this year's incursion of Americans is the great number of visitors from the Southern States. A few years ago hardly an American traveler would be from the South. At the present moment about eight out of ten are from places famous in the records of the civil war. Shopkeepers much prefer them to the Northern visitor. They approximate more nearly the English type, are not so self-assertive, and are equally good business men and women.'

The Post comments:

"As to whether the Southerners who have been in England this year 'approximate more nearly the English type' than do the Northerners, is quite beside the question. The feature of interest, of import, of significance at home is that travelers from the South to Europe now outnumber those from the North. European travel still is expensive, and those who indulge in it must have surplus money—money that is not needed to keep the larder full.

"Commercial and business statistics have been revealing, in their cold, austere way, for years the rapid change taking place in the South. The Post has noted with genuine pleasure from time to time the evidences of substantial, solid, and conservative development in every section of the South, but nothing in the statistics or The Post's comments has so pointedly emphasized the prosperity at the South as observation of the London paper. The South is coming back to its own, and coming fast. The people of that section, energetic, industrious, and frugal by inheritance, in spite of all that has been fallaciously thought and written of them to the contrary, are working out their own material as well as intellectual destiny in their own way and with their own resources. No such recovery from the paralyzing shock and ruinous devastation of war is revealed by written history as that which the South is now and has been for more than twenty years undergoing. With courage unsurpassed in the record of the human race, the men and women of the South have been at work these four decades building up the waste places, and with indomitable spirit, which only the genius of a Macaulay could picture in its true colors, they have stuck to their tasks, not forgetting the past, with its glories and triumphs, and forgiving those who assailed and traduced them either through ignorance or wanton pusillanimity. Theirs has been a hard task, indeed, but they are mastering it—they have mastered it. While it is always extremely hazardous to make predictions about an individual or a people, we make bold to indulge the prophecy that it will not be a long time now until the South resumes its historic primacy in American affairs. There is one awful problem facing the Southerners, but now that the North is showing a willingness to let the South work it out in its own way, we doubt not that that way will be wise and lasting and good.

"The Afro American is of the South. There he will stay. Deprivation of the ballot and other temporary expedients imposed by necessity may for a while continue to drive hordes of blacks to the North, but soon or late these hordes or their descendants will return to the South, because the North does not know how to get along with the negro in mass, and it seems that the North never will know how to do this. Industrially and economically, the North has no place for the black man. The South has. The vast, rich stretches of cotton and other agricultural lands at the South will always afford opportunity for the negro to work to the best possible advantage, both to himself and his employer. If he show aptitude for higher things, he will find an opening at the South for the proper and profitable employment of this aptitude. At present his labor is being utilized in the best possible manner for the development of the South's marvelous resources of soil and climate and mines and citizenship."

The Post has doubtless sized up the situation correctly, but it must be said that if the negro population of the South and the Italian or other foreign population of the North could be distributed among the various States it would be all the better for the country.

RAEFORD'S ENTERPRISE.

Raeford is a new town in the western portion of Cumberland county. Its location is on Mr. Blue's railroad from Aberdeen to Hope Mills and the town is situated in one of the finest agricultural regions of North Carolina. Some months ago the Raeford Power & Manufacturing Company was referred to as building a 5,000 spindle cotton mill. The plant is now about completed, the machinery having been operated some ten days ago for a trial.

The enterprise at Raeford is much more pretentious than the casual mention of it might lead us to suppose. It is not only a $100,000 enterprise but it promoters have other plans for developing water-power, erecting an electric power transmission plant, and the building of another cotton mill. Its electric power plant would be available to Fayetteville, Aberdeen and other towns, and it appears that Raeford is goin to develop into an important town. The cotton milll which will soon be running regularly there is in a building 325 feet long by 78 feet in width, while the power plant is contained in a building 60 by 35 feet. The Star is prepared to believe that Raeford is a coming town.

THE BREATH OF LIFE

It is a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs mean powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." —The Presbyterians who are interested in the Mountain Retreat Association at Montreat, N. C., are making things hum. On Saturday at Charlotte they announced the payment of $25,000 to the original owners according to contract, with the same amount to be paid in three months, while there is a large surplus in the treasury.

—The Greensboro Record of recent date has this to say of Uncle John Laws, the present and next register of deeds of Orange county; John Laws is again a candidate for Register of Deeds of Orange county. He has held the job for sixty years and declines to make any promise as to when he will retire. A year or two ago there were some signs that he would quit, but he came up this way, married a good woman and seems to have taken a new lease on life.

—Jim Lee, who kept the Chinese laundry at Tarboro was found dead in his room on Friday. For some days he had been suffering with stomach trouble and was being treated by Dr. Jenkins. On Friday he told a negro boy who assists him to go and iron some collars and then he could go see the show. When the boy had done as directed he returned to the room and found Jim dead, with his feet and arms all-drawn up as if he had suffered agony.

—Nathan Brown, aged 25 years, was found dead one mile north of Walnut Cove on Friday. His head was crushed and he was lying near the W. and W. track. Brown was out with Deputy Collector K. A. Petree on Thursday and assisted in the seizure of some blockade brandy or whiskey. He was seen in Walnut Cove that night and was badly intoxicated. It is presumed that he sat down on the railroad track and was struck by a train.

—Thomasville special, Sept. 22: Governor Glenn has just closed a most passionate exhortation of two hours to the people of Davidson county. Hundreds of voters, their wives and sweethearts are leaving the grounds stronger than ever in the Democratic faith. Solicitor Hammer and Representative Hankins are mingling with the remaining multitude and winning votes by their persuasive personalities. But few can remove their attention from the Governor, who surely, after his great speech here, must be called the Bryan of North Carolina.

—Greensboro corespondence, Sept. 22: The proof of the death of the late Dr. McIver having been received by the Security Life and Annuity Company today, in which he had an annuity policy valued at eight thousand dollars, the first quarterly payment was made at once. By the terms of this policy Mrs. McIver will be paid an annuity of five hundred dollars in quarterly instalments until the youngest child now seven years of age, becomes 21. Besides this insurance, Dr. McIver had regular policies in other companies aggregating $16,000. He left scarcely any other estate, all that he made going freely to the support of his family and contributing to every public subscription of public enterprise or private charity, without regard to his amassing riches except in good deeds.

—Charlotte special, Sept. 22: It is reported here on what appears to be definite authority that the Conservative Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Charlotte, whose charter was recently revoked, and for which a temporary receiver was named, has been taken over by the Southern Life Insurance Company, of Fayetteville. Since the license of the company was revoked, negotiations have been pending between the insolvent company and the Southern Life with the result that the latter named company decided to take over into its hands the business of the old firm and open offices in this city. The services of Mr. S. R. Brown and Mr. Will McDonald were secured to have charge of the business here. Both are insurance men of prominence. It is stated that the new company will conduct the same business as the insolvent firm, with the exception of the industrial department.

—Robbers visited Jonesboro Friday night, entering three stores. The store of J. P. Avent was entered by breaking the glass out of the front door. It is not known how they gained entrance to the safe but it was found standing open with the inside out and the money gone. They also carried off a pair of shoes and various other articles amounting to quite a sum. The store of J. B. Buchanan was entered by prying open the front door. Here they scattered goods all over the store and destroyed the cash drawer. They also carried off some clothing and jewelry, but owing to the condition of the stock it is impossible to tell the exact loss. The store of J. R. Watson was entered and four pairs of shoes were taken; also one hundred and fifty dollars worth of jewelry. This is the store formerly kept by Watson & Godfrey, and where two safes have been dynamited in the last few years; but this time the large new safe which has only been installed for a short while was not touched. The doors were pried open at all three stores with a bar secured from a black smith shop, and from the general appearance it was the work of professionals.

—Washington special to Raleigh News and Observer, Sept. 22: If the Postoffice Department lives up to its oft repeated declarations for nonpartisanship in the service, J. F. Dagenhart, the rural carrier in Iredell, who endeavored to interrupt the speech of Hon. R. N. Hackett on August 11th., will be looking for another job in the very near future. Postmaster General Cortelyou is not in the city, but Fourth Assistant Postmaster General DeGraw, who has supervision of the rural delivery service, stated today that he has not yet received the affidavits filed with Senator Simmons from citizens of Iredell protesting against the obnoxious conduct of carrier Dagenhart. Mr. DeGraw said that the papers would receive the careful attention of the Department, and that an official investigation would be ordered immediately. When asked for a statement outlining the position of the Postoffice Department with regard to the pernicious activity of employees in politics Mr. DeGraw sent for a statement by the Postmaster General on the identical subject. In his statement Mr. Cortelyou addressed himself to postmasters, but Mr. DeGraw says the remarks apply with equal force to rural delivery carriers and all other employees in the postal service.

CHATHAM RADICALS REVIVE SCANDAL

Endorsed Fusion Legislature of 1895-1897—Even Marion Butler's Caucasian Couldn't Stand for the Likes of Them.

(Chatham Record.)

The Republican convention of this county endorsed the notorious Legislatures of 1895 1897 by nominating two of the members thereof, and the voters of the county are invited to endorse those Legislatures by electing these two ex-members.

These two ex-members are A. W. Wicker, who was in the Senate in 1895 and J. E. Bryan yho was in the House in 1895 and 1897. They were nominated by the Republican convention, which was held on the 25th of last month, and are now on the Republican county ticket. Of course their nomination was an endorsement of their legislative career, and every vote cast for them will be an endorsement. Therefore it is proper that the voters of this county should be reminded of the acts and doings of those notorious Fuston Legislatures which so disgraced our good old State. So odious were those Legislatures that they caused a political revolution in 1898, that enabled the Democrats to sweep the State by an unprecedented majority.

It is a matter of history, that cannot be forgotten, how those Fuston Legislatures pandered in every way possible to the ignorant negroes and placed under their control many of the towns and cities of this State. Time and space will not permit a recital of the many acts and doings of those Legislatures. It is not necessary to produce Democratic witnesses to prove how odious were those Fusion Legislatures. We have sufficient evidence from a source that ought to be accepted as gospel truth by all Republicans. That source is the Caucasian the organ of the Fusionists and edited by Marion Butler. From that paper, published in 1897, we copy the following extracts:

"Up to this date the Legislature is a damnable disgrace to the State."

"As to the Legislature of 1897, the one now in session, we have to say as a fact that it has won the contempt of the people generally of all parties, and we have to say as an opinion that we do not believe that it can overcome that contempt in two years' time and hence we can not get the approval of the people.

"About ten more days remain of the Legislative session. Unless there shall be, within this time, an almost miraculous change, the record of the Legislature will be nothing, absolutely nothing. All it will have done when it resigns will be the spending of $60,000 or $70,000 of the public funds for which nothing will be returned."

"Of course there are some good men here, who can not, in justice, be held responsible for the record, but we are speaking of the legislature as a whole, and unless that record shall be phenomenally changed within a week it will be the imperative duty and we think it will be the pleasure of the people to see that such a crowd is never sent up to make laws again."

"The various committees to whom bills are referred seem to be composed of men who are either generally indifferent or pitiably ignorant. It is almost impossible to get their attention to any bill that does not carry some job with it."

NEW BLACK RIVER BOAT.

Handsome Little Craft Launched at Mill Creek Friday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Atkinson, N. C., Sept. 21.—At Mill Creek, on Black River, near here, today an informal yet very pretty ceremony took place at the launching of a crafty little naptha launch owned by Messrs. Hawes & Sellers. As the boat glided into the water several young ladies were on board and Miss Mattie Hawes broke the bottle of wine naming it "Virginia" in honor of Mrs. E. A. Hawes.

The Virginia will probably be one of the swiftest and prettiest little boats running into Wilmington for the Fall, Winter and Spring. It will be used for towing, but during the Summer it will be carried to Wrightsville Beach for a pleasure launch.

THE W. L. I. BAZAAR.

Ladies Called to Meet This Morning at 11 O'Clock.

Preparations are going on apace for the big W. L. I. bazaar to be held on the armory grounds on the nights of October 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th. The Central Committee is hard at work, and the various special committees are planning pleasant surprises for the public for each night of the fete.

The lady friends of the organization, who have responded so nobly to the calls on them in the past, and who have the welfare of the company at heart, are one and all requested to meet at the armory this morning at 11 o'clock for the purpose of discussing details of the bazaar and that they may appoint committees to have charge of the different booths, etc. Several members of the Central Committee, including the captain, will be present at this meeting to explain the different features of the programme which has been arranged, and to give all information possible.

To the ladies is due the credit for that most successful bazaar that was held last Fall at the armory, and the members of the Wilmington Light Infantry sincerely hope that their lady friends will not forget them in their present undertaking.

Candles Washed Ashore.

The Star was shown yesterday by Mr. Hans A. Kure some tallow candles that washed ashore during last Monday's storm from the wreck of the old blockade runner Beauregard, the wreck of which has lain off Carolina Beach since the closing days of the Civil War, a period of something over 40 years. The candles and wicks are easily distinguishable and are quite a curiosity. Mr. Kure collected nearly half a bushel of them on the beach after the storm .

Into Their New Store.

Messrs. Platt & Haar, proprietors of the Little (?) Store, are now at home in their handsome new establishment at No. 9 North Front street, where they have greatly increased their stock, added a number of new departments and placed themselves in the front rank of dry goods stores in the city. The place has been refitted throughout and it is both a pleasure and a profit to shop at the establishment.

Repairs at Wrightsville Beach.

On account of the damage to the beach by last Monday's storm, the car on the beach does not run beyond Station 5. In changing cars at Wrightsville there is a walk of nearly half a mile before reaching the beach car. The company has been working hard getting the piling in shape and hopes to begin relaying the track on the trestle in a few days.

ALDERMEN MEET TO-NIGHT.

Called Meeting For Consideration of the Social Evil.

A called meeting of the Board of Aldermen will be held to-night for the purpose of considering the petition of citizens, asking for a suppression of houses of ill fame alleged to exist in the city. What good can come of the meeting remains to be seen. It is known that there is a movement quietly in progress to abate the evil and pressure will be brought to bear on the Aldermen to allow this proceeding to take its course first. It is understood that any recipitate action will result in spoiling these plans which were recently set on foot by a body of substantial citizens of the town.

A. & Y. On Time Once More.

The A. & Y. train rolled in on time last night for the first time in a generation. So unusual was the occurrence that people asked on the street the cause. A friend of Capt. "Bob" Branch hurried with the explanation that Capt. Branch was back on his old passenger run on the line again and that he always ran things like greased lightning. And who knows but that is so? The friends of Capt. Branch are glad to see him on the run once more and will tolerate no more late trains.

RE-INSURED WITH SOUTHERN.

Fayetteville Company Takes Over Business of Conservative Mutual.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Sept. 24.—The Southern Life Insurance Company has re-insured the life business of the Conservative Mutual Company, of Charlotte. Some days ago the Insurance Commissioner cancelled the license of the latter company and stopped them from doing business in North Carolina. It is fortunate for the policy holders to have their insurance placed in a good strong home company. Mr. Dawson, the leading New York actuary, says that the business is splendid. The Southern Life is doing a fine business and this trade extends their business very materially.

The Fayetteville graded schools opened this morning with the largest first day attendance in the history of the schools, five hundred and fifty pupils being present. Last year the opening day number was five hundred.

Six Per Cent Mortgages.

Mortgages are a class of securities by themselves; their values are not dependent upon publicfranchises, nor are they subject to legislative attack or official investigation; neither is their value depreciated by aggressive competition or corporate mismanagement.

Many of the largest and most conservative life insurance companies in the world invest largely in mortgages, as experience has taught them that this is one of the safest and most profitable ways to invest money.

M R TROUBLE OVER ATLANTA RIOT

the feeling that the trouble is not passed. Some have believed that trouble would come tonight but in view of the confidence of the authorities in their ability to control the situation, it is believed hat these fears are groundless.

Reports of slaughter in various parts of Atlanta since night fall after the most careful investigation possible at this time, have resolved themselves down to one fight between a number of policemen and deputies and an unknown number of negroes.

In the fight which took place in South Atlanta, about three miles from the city's centre and in the vicinity of Clark University, negro institution, County Policeman James L. Heard was killed, four other officers were wounded and three policemen were missing at last reports. The number of negroes dead is not known, possibly it never will be known, but the officers in the darkness claimed to have counted from six to fifteen dead or dying negroes on the ground. The excitement of the fight and the darkness of the night made the counting uncertain.

County Policeman Heard with ten other officers and ten citizens sworn in as deputies, learning that negroes were gathering, went to disperse them. As they approached McDonough avenue, an unknown number of negroes, hidden behind fences and under houses fired a volley. Policeman Heard fell dead. Policeman Frank Jordan, himself wounded in the head, using the dead body of Heard as a shelter, emptied three round into the negroes apparently avenging the cold blooded assassination. The other casualties were Policeman Odum, wounded in head, Policeman A. C. Eubanks, wounded in leg; Ernest Smith, a citizen, shot in hip. Three of the policemen are reported missing. The report of a general fight and two killed at Howell's station is declared at military headquarters to be untrue. Other reports of trouble tonight are equally unfounded, according to latest information from the alleged seat of battle.

Following the killing of Policeman Heard in South Atlanta tonight the force which accompanied him and were not disabled in the fight, pursued the negroes. They captured ten of the attacking party. Four escaped, six were put aboard a street car under the guard of the police and deputies were started for the county jail in the center of the town. As the car approach 491 Crew street, a waiting mob stopped the car. Two of the prisoners, Sam McSaunders and Wiley Brooks, made a bold dash for liberty. The mob caught them in the front yard of the home occupied at the above number by Mrs. R. C. Thompson, a highly respected white woman. The negroes were cut and beaten and left for dead. Mrs. Thompson watching the exciting scene from the porch of her home, dropped dead from heart disease. The police succeeded in locking up the other four negroes in the county jail. Later it was discovered that McSaunders and Brooks were not dead, They were brought to the city and are now reported to be dyin.

The Clansman Suppressed.

Macon, Ga., Sept. 24.—Thomas Dixon's play "The Clansman" booked to appear in the theatre here Wednesday night will not be permitted to appear by order of the mayor in view of race riots in Atlanta. It is deemed unwise to let "The Clansman" appear. Steps will be taken to keep the show out of the theatres in Georgia. The public is not favorable to a second appearance.

Negroes Ambush and Kill Policeman.

Atlanta, September 14.—While a party of county policemen were riding by an alley in south Atlanta, near Clark University, a negro institution, they were fired upon by a party of negroes who ambushed the officers from the alley. County Policeman Heard was killed, three other officers were wounded and one is missing. The officers and a squad of soldiers patrolling that section are following the fleeing negroes into the woods.

Another report says that three officers were killed and two wounded.

BACKSTAMPING OF LETTERS.

Old Rule Will Be Discontinued in Several Cities.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, September 24.—The effect of the experiment conducted by the Postoffice Department in Chicago, New York, Jersey City and Boston, of abandoning the system of backstamping mail matter, in order to facilitate delivery, has been such as to lead postmasters throughout the country to flood the Department with requests for similar permission. The idea originates with Frank H. Hitchcock, the First Assistant Postmaster General. Mr. Hitchcock today issued an order effective October 1, suspending the regulation with respect to backstamping in the cities of St. Louis, Richmond, Virginia, Providence, R. I., and Albany, N. Y. The plan will be tried in these cities for sufficient length of time in order that an accurate idea may be obtained of its efficiency.

In discussing the matter today Mr. Hitchcock, who is acting Postmaster General in the absence of Mr. Cortelyou, said that the reports of posmasters throughout the country are to the effect that the time on the back of mail is arbitrary, and that it frequently happens that the stamps are set for a certain hour although the mail may have been received several hours previously. This, therefore, has a tendency to reduce the value of the back stamp in the few rare cases that arise where it is supposed to play an important part in questions of dispute.

IMMENSE PIER BE BUILT.

Jamestown Exposition Will Have One 1,500 feet Long.

Washington, September, 24.—Plans were approved today by General MacKenzie, chief of engineers and the secretary of war for a great double pier which is to be constructed at the Jamestown Exposition. The pier, or rather piers for there really are two to be built in connection with each other will extend from the exposition grounds into the waters of Hampton Roads, 1,500 feet. Together the piers will be 600 feet wide. One of them will be known as Godspeed pier and the other Susan Constant pier. The plans were drawn by the architects of the exposition and were revised by Captain Crosby of the engineer corps of the army. The contract for the construction of the pier will be let at the earliest possible date as the work ought to be completed not later than first of May, next.

SOUTHERN STATES ALL WANT MEN

Europe is Being Ransacked for Farm Laborers and Other Workers—Some Successful Colonies in Several States.

(New York Sun.)

The Call of the Cultivated is so loud that the Call of the Wild seems pretty faint in comparison. All over the country the farmers howling for laborers.

The voice of the South comes on every breeze Scarcely one of the Southern States but has sent its agent abroad to try to direct immigration to its own particular boundaries.

Whole colonies of immigrants are being planted along the railway lines, and still the cry is for more.

Already several hundred German farmers have been located along the Southern Railway between Richmond and Danville, Va. Hungarians, Germans and Poles are to be found on farms between West Point and Richmond. These settlements are growing constantly, says The Charleston News and Courier, and the farmers are sending to the mother country for their friends and relatives.

At Valdese, N. C., fifty families of Italian farmers have been organized into a profitable community, and they too are inducing colonies of their countrymen to come out to America.

Russian farmers are now engaged in trucking in Aiken, S. C., and near Summerville a little band of French-Canadian farmers are in similar pursuits, with most encouraging results. At Lumber City, Ga., Italian farmers and wood workers have found the country and saw mills in that vicinity so remunerative that they are urging their countrymen to come there.

From Birmingham, Ala., to Greenville, Miss., Italians have been secured as cotton growers. From Mobile to Birmingham there are scattered settlements of Hungarian and Polish farmers, whose abilities and energies have made a marked difference in the neighborhood where they have established themselves.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily. when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowziness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

E. Poezolt, merchant tailor of 8th South Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism, and her ankles would be all puffed up every morning so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and taking them she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankles and from the great relief she obtained we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CIRCUS MAN COUGHED UP

How Kinston Man Was "False Changed" Out of $10 and Got it Back. He Missed it In Time.

Kinston, N. C., September 21.—Mr. W. E. Askew, of this county, a well known farmer, was taking his family into the "big show" and stopped at the opening between the menagerie and main show to purchase reserved seats, tendering a silver dollar. In his purse Mr. Askew had several $20 bills and the ticket seller told him he would give him the reserved seat tickets if Mr. Askew would swap him the bills for some silver, of course offering a good excuse for so doing. Mr. Askew demurred but finally acceded to the request and the ticket seller counted the change into Mr. Askew's hand and received the bills. Mr. Askew went to his seat and decided to look at his money again and behold! he was ten dollars shrort. Very quietly he came down out of the seat, without saying a word to any one, but with the characteristic quiet determination to get his money back. As soon as he emerged from the reserved seat section he was approached by an attendant who wanted to know if anything was the matter. Mr. Askew told him no, and kept on towards the man he made the deal with. Before reaching the latter, however, he was approached by six different attendants, all of whom asked him if anything was the matter. He told them no. When within ten feet of he ticket seller that gentleman, who had his back to Mr. Askew, turned around and holding out $10 said. "Why, you are the gentleman who left part of your money here just now. Here it is."

Mr. Askew put the money back in his pocket and walked to his seat without saying a word and the incident was closed.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, September 24.—The cotton market was more active today and generally easier with the close steady at 300,000 bales. The market opened steady at a decline of 5 to 9 points which was a shade better than due on the lower cables and favorable weather reports owing to covering by recent sellers for profits and the market rallied within 2 or 3 points of Saturday's finals during the early session on this demand. There were also rumors that spinners were buying on a scale down, but private cables from Liverpool reported increase of Southern offerings big estimates for the Indian crop and a slack trade demand and prices there showed little disposition to rally. The local market consequently turned easier before midday under increased offerings through wire and commission houses and the low point was reached in the late trading. October made a new low record but later months did not reach the low figures touched at the end of August.

Receipts, cotton today, 43,409 bales, against 31.058 last week, and 53,812 last year. For the week 295,000 bales, against 185,934 last week, and 293,723 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 8,984 bales, against 4,427 last year, and at Houston, 14,720 bales, against 16,164 last year.

FIVE NEGROES WERE SLAIN

One Woman Was Victim of Mob's Fury—Twelve Military Companies Available to Restore Order. Negro Lynched in Suburbs.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Atlanta, September 24.—Today has passed without serious troubles in the race difficulties here. The authorities felt so confident that they have the situation well in hand that at noon an order was issued dismissing five of the companies of State militia that were ordered here yesterday to assist the local companies of the Fifth Georgia Regiment There is now ready for all emergencies the entire Fifth Regiment, twelve companies, to aid the police, city and county which number more than 200 men. The militia were withdrawn from the downtown streets today and sent to the armories for much needed rest. They are on the streets tonight, patrolling the entire city. The saloons have been closed all day, by order of Mayor Woodward and will remain closed until further orders. The city schools opened as usual this morning and with an attendance almost normal. Some white pupils of the State street school were stoned while on their way to school but a squad of police gave protection. Police have been stationed at each of the schools. Orders also were issued today prohibiting the sale of fire arms and ammunition, without the written order of the military authorities. As a matter of fact, these stocks were practically exhausted Saturday, before the order was given to stop such sales.

The lynching of Zeb Long, a negro, at East Point, suburb eight miles south of the city, early today, has furnished the most exciting event of the last twenty-four hours. Long was arrested Sunday evening charged with disorderly conduct. He was heavily armed and made a strong resistance to arrest. He had threatened the marshal of the town and appeared to be prepared to carry out his threat.

He was taken from the East Point jail, a flimsy structure, after midnight and was hanged in the woods half a mile from the town.

No reliable particulars of the lynching have been made public.

The courts have taken a hand in connection with the riot of Saturday night. In the city police court today Judge Broyles inflicted the extreme sentence of the law on six young white men charged with inciting to riot, giving each thirty days in jail and binding them over to the higher courts under a thousand dollar bond. The trouble. Mayor Woodward today is against two negroes charged with attempted criminal assault on two young women. Both assaults occurred within the last two weeks, one on Courtland street and the other at Copeland Hill near he city.

In anticipation of possible further

The number of dead as a result of sued an order that all boys under 21 years must keep off the streets after 8 o'clock at night. He says this order is to be forced strictly. He has also asked all citizens to remain in their homes at night until the present troubles shall be passed.

Annie Shepherd, shot Saurday night. the riots thus far is still a matter of uncertainty. The police have the names of five negroes known to have been killed and one unknown dead negro is held at an undertaker's office here. The known dead are:

are not known. No white persons have

Frank Smith, stabbed to death Saturday.

Milton Brown, shot, died in Grady hospital.

Henry Welsh, barber, shot at his shop Saturday night.

Zeb Long, hanged at East Point today.

The reports are that more than these have been killed but their names and time and places of their deaths are ont known. No white persons have been killed, according to the most reliable reports. The list of wounded is a long one, and several of these are expected to die.

The return of the seventeenth United States infantry to Fort McPherson, today from Chickamauga, Ga., was gladly received, although the possibility of the regulars being called upon is regarded as very remote.

Although the day has been quiet in the downtown districts a number of disturbances have been reported and verified from the outlying districts. A squad of Macon militia men assigned to guard duty in a negro settlement last night surprised and dispersed a company of negroes drilling on a back street. No arests were made. A gang of negro boys 15 to 18 years old, beat a young white boy this afternoon who took refuge in the house of a prominent citizen in Piedmont avenue.

THE DEMOCRATS OF NEW YORK

Liveliest and Most Interesting of State Conventions to Assemble Today.

HEARST IS STRONG FACTOR

Has Strong Campaign Campaign Organization Working to Secure Nomination for Governor—Resolution for Bryan.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Buffalo, N. Y., September 24.—Lewis S. Nixon, of New York City, a former leader of Tammany Hall, was tonight chosen as temporary chairman of the Democratic State convention, the first session of which will be called to order here at noon tomorrow. Mr. Nixon is a delegate to the convention from the district of Charles F. Murphy, the present leader of the Tammany organization.

The naming of Mr. Nixon as temporary chairman is regarded as clarifying the situation to some extent, though none of the factions will admit that his celection means even a temporary set back to their cause. The former Tammany leader is claimed by the advocates of William R. Hearst to be friendly to their candidate for the governorship. The temporary chairman, however, made no public declaration of his position.

Arrangements for the convention went forward rapidly today. The auditorium seats 6,000 persons. On the eve of the convention the various candidates who were on the scene and the representaties of those who are not here marshalled the forces about them and prepared for what is expected to be the liveliest and most interesting convention the Democratic party has ever held in this State. The party leaders were still trying to fathom the strength of W. R. Hearst in whose behalf a strong campaign organization is working. They are also endeavoring to secure a declaration from Charles F. Murphy the leader of Tammany Hall, whose caucuc is expected to be held either immediately prior to the first session of the convention or just following it.

"Tammany is not pledged to any candidate whatsoever," Murphy said, "and I want that understood. We are here to find out who the up-state people want and whoever they decide upon is good enough for us no matter whether it is Mr. Adam, Mr. Dix or anybody else. Tammany will follow, not lead."

Added significance was attached to this remark by the fact that it was uttered after Mr. Murphy had been in conference with a number of prominent men representing the various factions of the party.

Former Mayor Osborne stated tonight that the Albany conference proposes to send a committee to the convention bearing the resolutions adopted at the recent conference as well as the address issued to the public by the executive committee several days ago, calling upon the delegates to the Buffalo convention to "stand for Democratic principles and Democratic candidates."

The campaign of Congressman Sulzer of New York is picturesque in lavish display.

District Attorney Jerome was closeted in his apartments nearly most of the day and Mayor McClellan who is active in advocating the district attorney for the gubernatorial nomination conferred pusily with the delegates.

It was announced tonight that Senator Grady will offer in the committee on resolutions, a resolution endorsing William J Bryan as the presidentiaal nominee for the Democratic party in 1908

RALEIGH'S $60,000 DISPENSARY.

Court Says It Must Run Gauntlet of Popular Election.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Raleigh, N. C., September 24.—The Raleigh dispensary which produces an annual net profit of $60,000 is to run the gauntlet of a popular election in the near future. In a decision handed down today in the Superior Court, Judge Webb gave a favorable action upon a petition for mandamus to order an election. The decision is important, construing the Watts and Ward acts, under which North Carolina rural districts are under prohibition and a number of the cities have dispensaries.

Last Spring a petition to order an election on prohibition was presented to the Raleigh board of aldermen but was refused upon the ground that there was a provision in the law for submitting the question of prohibition where by a previous vote the dispensary has been established.

The city attorney gave notice of appeal from Judge Webb's decision to the Supreme Court.

VICTORY FOR CUBAN REBELS

Secretaries Taft and Bacon Find the Situation in Their Favor.

PALMA GOVERNMENT OUT

Insurgents Sign Truce Arrangement and Hostilities Will Cease—New Elections Will Be Ordered as Basis of Settlement.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Havana, September 24.—Victory for the Liberals or Revolutionary party, seems certain tonight at the conclusion of a long conference between a committee of the insurgents, of eight members, and the American peace commissioners. The Insurgent committee announced that there was practically no difference remaining betweeen them and Secretaries Taft and Bacon and that they would receive a draft of the peace plans tomorrow. These probably would be agreed to a meeting to be held in the presidle where the prisoner members of the committee are confined.

Secretary Taft said he could give no details of what transpired at the conference for the reason that it was now necessary to treat with government leaders and that the publication of these peace proposals might interfere with their prompt acceptance.

Messrs. Taft and Bacon went to the palace tonight and informed President Palma of the outcome of the negotiations with the Liberals. The absence of a definite statement from the commissioners makes it impossible to say whether the plans carry the resignations of the present administration and the Congressmen elected last year or not.

Havana, September 24.—The Insurgents are inclined to seek the benefit of the armistice during the continuance of the peace negotiations. Here tofore there was merely a verbal agreement without any definite terms, but a document was prepared and taken to the camps of Generals Guerra and Castillo and these chiefs attached their signatures to it. The document was signed today by Acting Secretary of the Interior Montalvo, in behalf of the government.

The following is the text of Secretary Taft's armistice, as agreed upon absolutely by the Insurgents, and on one condition by the government officials:

"A truce or suspension of arms having been decreed by the President of Cuba and proclaimed to the forces of the Liberal party by their leaders, I, as intermediary for the purpose of arranging a permanent, peace, have the honor to request the opposing parties to specifically agree during the truce to refrain from all acts of hostility and to desist from all military operations of a hostile character and all preparatory movements of maneuvers which could not have been perfected during the continuance of hostilities or which would have been performed under the fire of the opposing party.

"First—No movement of troops shall take place on either side without a notification to the opposing authorities, viz., the Secretary of the Interior of Cuba, Alfred Zayas, representing the Liberal party, and the American peace commission.

"Second—This peace shall be effective throughout Cuba.

"Third—If either party violates any of the expressed conditions the opposing party shall not take hostile action until after a complaint or notification to the peace commission.

"Fourth—Hostilities shall not be resumed for at least twenty-four hours after notification to the peace commission.

"It is requested that acceptance of these conditions be made in writing to me.

"Very respectfully,

"WILLIAM H. TAFT.

Secretary of War of the United States."

Until the signing of the armistice today the government had been strengthening the defense of Havana, troops in the smaller towns of Havana. There are only small detachments of troops in the smaller towns of Havana province, from one to two hnndred at each of the principal towns along the railroad into Pinar del Rio. None of the Pinar del Rio coast towns had been garrisoned until Colonel Avalos arrived at Mariel today.

Americans at Bahia Honda have been asking for a warship but no orders to this end have yet been given.

In addition to the 2,500 troops at Camp Columbia, there are four rapid fire batteries in the shore defense here and LaFuerza, the latter guarding the palace. One thousand rural guardsmen and volunteers are stationed in Havana, and in addition several hundred city militia defend the outskirts of the city. With the exception of a volunteer force the city of Santa Clara is not properly defended. At Cienfuegos there are not more than 6,000 rural guardsmen and volunteers, although the original intention was to enlist up to 10,000 men there.

BANK FUGITIVE IN NEW YORK

Paul O. Stensland, of Chicago, Brought Home From Far Away Morocco.

HE HAS MADE CONFESSION

Affecting Scene Between Father and Son in New York—Will Implicate Some People High Up in Chicago Business.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, September 24.—Paul O. Stensland, of Chicago, bank embezzler, who arrived from Tangier, Morocco, today on the steamer Prince Adalebert, was brought to this city at 6 o'clock tonigat from quarantine and locked up at police headquarters here. He will be taken to Chicago tomorrow morning.

Harry Olsen, assistant State's attorney of Illinois, who accompanied Stensland, stated tonight that the prisoner had made a confession to him while en route from Tangier.

Theodore Stensland, the banker's son, immediately afterwards issued a statement in which he said that his father would plead guilty to certain of the indictments charging violaion of the Ilinois State banking laws, after he had examined the indictments. He would not plead guilty to forgery but would reveal everything leading up to the wrecking of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank and in so doing would implicate men prominent in the financial circles of Chicago. He added that if there was a shortage of more than four hundred thousand dollars in the accounts of the bank his father would prove that Cashier Herring was responsible for everything above that amount.

Stensland arrived in New York weak physically and showing much evidence of the strain which has attended his extraordinary flight through many countries, and his desperate but ineffectual try for freedom down the west African coast, and his final capture in the Moroccan city of Tangier, from which place the United States authorities were permitted to remove him by the government of Morocco. There was an affecting meeting between father and son on board the tug Catherine Moran, which the prisoner boarded at quarantine.

Stensland denies the report that he tried to commit suicide while in Morocco. He says that a sudden fainting spell there was interpreted as an attempt at self-destruction by the Moroccan soldiers.

The Prinz Aldebert was several hours later than expected in arriving at quarantine and it was 4:30 o'clock when the health officers boarded the steamer. At that time the decks of the Prinz Adelbert were lined with passengers, prominent among them being State's Attorney Olsen and James Keeley, managing editor of the Chicago Tribune who went to Tangier with the State's attorney to bring Stensland back to America. The first seen of Stensland was when he waved his hand from a state room window at his son.

No little excitement and commotion attended the departure of Stensland, together with State's Attorney Olsen and Mr. Keeley from the steamer, a step which they were permitted to take at quarantine by special ruling of the authorities.

All the baggage of the three men were transferred at the same time and it was noticed that the trunks of the indicted bank president all bore in print the full name of Stensland.

Stensland was pale and seemed very weak as he passed slowly from the steamer to the tug and then into the cabin. Here he was formally placed under arrest by the New York detectives and here also after a few moments he received his son. Both father and son were completely overcome and made no effort to restrain their emotions. The elder man seemed quite unable to talk and when he did so it was in tones so low that he could scarcely be heard.

Just before the boat reached the city, the younger Stansland gave out a statement on behalf of his father.

"He wants it understood," he said, "that his heart goes out first of all to the depositors, and secondly to his own family. He was treated with extraordinary good will and kindness by Mr. Olsen and Mr. Keeley and he is willing to abide by their advice absolutely.

"My father will examine the indictments which have been returned against him and he will plead guilty to such of these as he thinks he should plead guilty to. Moreover, he will turn State's evidence in the case of other indictments and he will implicate all those persons who should be indicted. He is not guilty of forgery, he says, but he will offer a plea of guilty to these indictments which in a general way are based upon technicalities under the Illinois statutes, which within the meaning of the law constitutes the crime of embezzlement."
